In The Pink by Adrian Wedgwood

The Pink Ribbon Ladies, the 'ladies that lunch' at Branston Pavilion and have raised a staggering £43,000 for Breast Cancer Now have banked another £1,600 thanks to their outstandingly successful first Glitter Ball & dinner that filled the sumptuously furnished Pavilion's Chatsworth suite with guests dancing the night away to soul band Madison Avenue.

Organiser Angela Haywood commented 'We raised an incredible £1,600 taking us nearer to the £7,000 my committee & I are working to donate this year to Breast Cancer Now and hitting £50,000 since we started our monthly lunches, Ascot Ladies Day, Christmas Party Nights and fabulous Christmas Market that this year will be on 14th, November - the perfect chance to pick up some special gifts for the Festive Season' she added.

For details of the Pink Ribbon Ladies events at Branston Pavilion please contact Angela Haywood on Burton 566484.

Streamlined School Mornings

Are you tired of waking up to chaotic, busy and frazzled mornings, feeling like you're surrounded by mayhem? With the kids going back to school in a few short weeks the dread will soon be setting in! Here are a few ways to turn your mornings of chaos into an oasis of calm.

1 Prepare breakfasts the night before.

Cut up fruit, cook a batch of hot cereal or measure out all your food before going to sleep at night. Having food ready to go is a big morning time-saver.

2 Lay out the next day's clothes in advance.

Everyone will be able to simply get dressed without having to worry about what to wear. The same goes for PE kits and any after-school activity clothes.

3 Turn up the music.

Not only can music wake you up and put you in a good mood, it can also be used as a time-keeping device. If you have a favourite short album or homemade playlist, you can crank up the tunes and use it as a guide, as in "We have to be dressed by the time the fourth song plays," and so on. Be creative and turn up the tunes!

4 Set up a bathroom schedule.

If you live in a busy household, you certainly know what it's like to share a bathroom in the morning. Keep things simple by letting people know who's first, second and so forth according to when people have to be at work and school. Even if you don't strictly keep to your schedule, people will be reminded they don't have the luxury of spending long hours in the bath.

5 Wait until you've bathed, dressed and groomed before turning on phones.

This is a top tip especially if you have teenagers in the house. Everyone will be ready for the day instead of sitting around in pajamas and bathrobes playing with phones.

6 Have a distraction-free breakfast.

Declare distraction-free time as you eat. Refrain from checking your phone, listening to the TV, radio or reading the newspaper and simply enjoy your breakfast.

7 Pack all the lunches at dinnertime.

Dinner leftovers make great, easy, no-fuss lunches. Pack up lunches as you're cleaning up dinner the night before and you won't have to think twice about what to have for lunches the next morning.

8 Bring your hallway up to season.

Struggling with lots of off-season shoes and coats as you try to leave your house? Clear out, wash and store off-season apparel so only what's being worn is to hand.

9 Store bags, keys and purses in the same location.

Make a pick-up and drop-off point for everyone's bags. This could be a hook in your hallway or a basket in the kitchen. Everything will be contained and you'll know exactly where to find belongings each and every time.

10 Make a checklist of must-have items.

Stop running around trying to remember what items are needed each and every day before leaving home. Create a must-have checklist (such as keys, phone, wallet, medication) and store the list on your smartphone, or write it down and tape it to the back of your front door as a handy reference.

Keeping mornings simple and routine will certainly start your day with less stress!

Star Student by Tracey Anne Chadwick

Burton Albion's Commercial Director, Fleur Robinson was delighted to attend the annual BTEC Awards in London to present Alison Healey with the BTEC Hospitality, Travel and Tourism Student of the Year award in recognition of her achievement in their subject. Spanning 24 categories, the eighth annual BTEC Awards were hosted by financial journalist and TV Presenter Steph McGovern, and showcased the fantastic contributions made by students and young people studying for BTECs.

The ceremony was attended by the winners, their families and teachers as well as leading stakeholders from the education and business worlds. An expert panel of 52 judges carefully considered each nominee before deciding upon a winner.

Fleur Robinson, who is an Ambassador for BTEC said: "I was delighted to be part of the event and honoured to present the award to Alison who was a worthy winner of the hospitality, travel and tourism category. "There were many outstanding stories about young people who are very passionate about their studies and enjoying learning by doing, developing valuable employability skills to use during their career or in further education."

Award winner Alison Healey said: "I know there are many young people who do their best and deserve to receive this award, so I'm very grateful to have been chosen, it was an exciting surprise. I appreciate all the guidance, support and inspirational teaching from my tutors, family and friends which has helped me to be the happy person I am. Winning this incredibly prestigious award gives me confidence, and opportunities to be successful in the future. Thank you!"

29 ASHBY ROAD, WOOLVILLE

By The Barn by Angela Sargent

Well, isn't the year whizzing past at a frightening speed and we're already into August and harvesting.

We will be cutting the winter barley and wheat, leaving the stubble to be worked later and the Pheasants will be picking over the dropped grain, the field mice and rabbits running away from the noisy combines cutting the crops.

The hedges are full with the nightshades, woody nightshade with its fuschia like purple flowers, giving way to red berries, black nightshade with its tomato-like flowers and cherry black berries and deadly nightshade-'Belladonna'- with its purple veined bell shaped flowers, from which we get 'Atropine' used for eye surgery and all poisonous!

Big, fat light-grey wood pigeons sit heavily on roads and fences, clumsily flapping and leaving it until the last minute to get out of the way, flocking into the fields to clean them of grain.

For more information on all things farming, follow Angela on Twitter @bythebarn

Brilliant Burgers

With the summer in full swing and the fabulous weather we've been having, many of us have dusted off the BBQs. Did you know it's Burger Day on 23rd August? By now, you might even be a bit BBQ jaded! Well freshen up your burgers by trying your hand at these two alternatives to cater for all!

HEALTHY TURKEY BURGER

Ingredients:

1.3kg minced turkey
30g dried bread crumbs
1/2 onion, finely diced
2 egg whites, lightly beaten small handful chopped parsley
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 tsp salt
1/4 tsp ground black pepper

Method:

- In a large bowl, mix the turkey, bread crumbs, onion, egg whites, parsley, garlic, salt and pepper.
- Form into 12 burgers.
- Cook in a medium frying pan over medium heat, turning once, to an internal temperature of 85c.

TASTY VEGAN BURGER

Ingredients:

1 can black beans, drained
1 can kidney beans, drained
2 1/2 cups vegan bread crumbs
1 tbsp olive oil
1 cup red onion, chopped
1 1/2 cup sunflower seeds
1/2 cup carrot, finely pulsed
2 egg substitutes
2 cups almond flour
2 tsp chilli powder
1/2 tsp paprika
1/2 tsp garlic powder
1 tsp oregano
1 tsp salt
1/4 tsp pepper
oil for frying burger patties

Method:

- Process the beans quickly (pulse) in a food processor so that they are still a bit chunky or mash with a potato masher.
- Heat the oil in a frying pan.
- Add the onion and carrot and sauté for about 10 minutes.

- Mix the egg substitute and water per instruction.
- Put all of the ingredients in a large bowl and mix.
- Make into equally sized balls and place on a baking sheet.
- Space out the balls evenly and flatten each ball with the palm of your hand to make a patty.
- Freeze at this point or fry the amount of patties that you want.
- Fry the patties in a little bit of hot oil for 5 minutes on each side.

TO FREEZE:

- Place the baking sheets into the freezer for about 30 minutes or until the burgers are frozen.
- Take the baking sheets out of the freezer.
- Use a spatula to slide off each burger patty and store in a freezer bag.
- Place a small piece of waxed paper between each burger for easy removal.

TO COOK AFTER FREEZING:

- Take out as many burgers as you want, let them defrost thoroughly then fry in a little bit of hot oil for about 5 minutes on each side and hot all the way through.

Celebrating Claymills

This year we're celebrating twenty-five years of devoted and skilled volunteering at Claymills, and the restoration of the pumping station from horrible dereliction (come and take a look at the photographs) to one of the most popular sites in the area.

Keep an eye out for information about our celebration steaming weekend in October. We now have three of the four giant beam engines in action, with plans to restore the fourth, and 25 other, smaller stationary steam engines on view. Work is progressing on No.4 of our five boilers, in order to be able to steam up two at once.

There are many interesting things to see and do at Claymills, including our Victorian workshop and blacksmith's forge, and children's activities including dressing up, Victorian posy making, following the Ratty Trail and operating a steam winch. Join us for our August steaming weekend, and sample our famous cake in the Stoker's rest café!

Our next steaming days:
26th & 27th August

Come and see four giant beam engines and more than 20 other stationary steam engines in action.

Children's activities, other attractions, great café!

The Museum is also open for static viewing
Thursdays & Saturdays: 10:00am - 5:00pm

Admission prices on Steaming Days:
Adults £6 - Concessions £5 - Children £3 - Family £15
Admission on all other days is free. Donations welcome.

Protect Your Pooch

According to the Missing Pets Bureau as many as 38 per cent of all animals reported lost have actually been stolen and as many as 60 per cent of these are tragically never recovered.

Whilst pedigree pets are at the greatest risk due to the cost of purchasing pedigree puppies, non-pedigree dogs can also be at risk as thieves wait for a reward to be offered.

Keeping your dog safe:

- Think twice before leaving your dog tied up outside a shop.
- Don't leave your dog alone in the car, even for a few minutes. Thieves can easily break into your car to steal your precious pet.
- Make sure your dog is microchipped and that you keep your contact details up-to-date, especially if you move house or change your telephone number. Dogs and puppies in the UK must be microchipped by eight weeks old, by law.
- Your dog should always wear a collar and ID tag with your name and address on it. This is a legal requirement when your dog is in a public place. A mobile number is also a good idea, but avoid putting your dog's name on the disc.
- Take clear photographs of your dog from various angles, and update them regularly. Make a note of any distinguishing features.

- Have lots of photographs of yourself with your dog, to help you to prove ownership if needed. Train your dog to come back when called, and never let them off the lead if you are not sure they will come back to you. If in doubt, use an extending lead, especially if you are in an unfamiliar area where your dog may get lost more easily.
- Take care when choosing someone to care for your dog if you are going away from home or need a dog walker whilst you go to work. Use a reputable company or boarding kennels and check references for people who provide dog or house-sitting services.
- At home, make sure your garden is secure and fit a bell to the gate so you hear if anyone opens it
- Keep your dog in view in the garden, don't just leave him outside unsupervised
- Beware of chalk marks that have appeared outside your home on paths or walls. Thieves sometimes mark homes which contain valuable pedigree breeds and return to steal the animals at a later time.

If your dog is lost or suspected stolen, it is important to act quickly:

- Report the loss to your local council's dog warden and those in all other neighbouring local authorities.

- If you believe your pet has been stolen, report it to the police and insist it is recorded as a theft and not a lost animal. Ask for a crime reference number.
- Report the loss/theft to the microchip database, this will ensure that if anyone tries to re-register the chip number, you will be informed
- Make posters and display them in areas local to your home and also in relevant places such as vets, local parks etc. The poster should include a clear photograph and details of the circumstances.
- Make sure local vets are aware in case someone takes your dog in for treatment.
- Use social media & the many websites for lost dogs and pets e.g. www.doglost.co.uk

Be Kind To Yourself

With the kids returning to school soon, it's good to take some time out and decompress from the summer holidays. Mums and Dads can be frazzled from juggling work and childcare and the endless entertaining. So this September, when the routine returns, make some time to be kind to yourself...

Be careful how you talk to yourself:

Is your tone warm, encouraging, kind, forgiving? Remember that negative self-talk often keeps us stuck. If this is a cycle you need help breaking remind yourself to speak nicely to yourself, there's no reason to be too hard on yourself.

Learn how to soothe your mind:

Consider meditation, gentle music, keeping a journal, or creating something. Distract, don't ruminate.

Say "no":

You're not being selfish. Humans can't do all things well.

Self-care:

Eat well, exercise regularly, and get plenty of sleep. This is like performing routine maintenance on yourself.

Don't overuse technology:

Humans are complex and social creatures. We were not designed to live life through a screen. Numerous studies assert that overuse of technology and social media are correlated with increased anxiety, comparison, envy, and apathy.

Give back:

You may ask, "How does serving others help me to be kind to myself?" Well, it allows you to take the focus off of yourself, which gives your mind a break from whatever it is you're ruminating about. Plus you get to brighten up someone else's day. Win-win!

So make sure you put aside some time to be kind to yourself. You'll be surprised at how much lighter and happier you'll feel.

WIN!

A Baby Bronze Casting

For this month's competition, a lucky reader can win a Baby Bronze Casting from Elliot Channer Sculpture.

This prize is a beautiful opportunity to immortalise your little baby's tiny hands and feet in solid bronze, revealing every natural line in their delicate skin.

Taking a 3D mould takes approximately 2 minutes. The alginate is a warm mixture which holds hands and feet gently and flexibly, with no heat or discomfort and the hand or foot is easily removed – sliding out cleanly, leaving no residue, and does not stick to baby's skin.

The moulds are taken in the comfort of your own home, or in the studio if you prefer, and then, after being cast in wax, are cast in bronze by a team of skilled craftsmen at the bronze foundry.

The finished cast is patinated to give a stunning lustre and has the tactile quality of cool, heavy bronze.

Your baby's hand and foot is engraved with their name and date of birth before being mounting onto an oak display plinth.

Elliot works from his Burton studio, where he also produces wildlife sculpture. All of Elliot's sculptures are small limited editions.

You can find more information at: www.elliotchanner.co.uk or email elliotchanner@hotmail.co.uk

To enter this month's competition, all you have to do is put your name, address and daytime telephone contact number on a postcard and send it to:

Elliot Channer
Sculpture Competition,
Local Links Media, Suite 29,

Alternatively, you can e-mail your details to: local@locallinksmedia.co.uk

The closing date for entries is the 18th of September, and the winners will be announced in our October edition.

Cyber Safety

Kids of all ages tap into cyberspace on a daily basis, whether it be for school research, to play games, or connect with friends. As a parent, how can you keep your kids protected from the many traps that await users in cyberspace?

Teach them about cybersecurity early on:

It's easy for children to see the benefits of the internet, but an understanding of phishing, viruses, bullying and even online communication etiquette are all things that they must be taught.

Be mindful of your words and actions: In real life, you teach your children to be mindful of what they say and not to hurt someone else's feelings or put themselves in harm's way. Explain to your kids that once you post something online, it can remain in cyberspace forever.

Careful with strangers:

You tell your kids to be wary of strangers in the real world, and the same must be said about strangers in cyberspace.

Restrict access to risky sites:

When you can't supervise, set up parameters around your children's access to certain websites that you would deem as inappropriate or risky for them to use.

Encourage moderation:

This tip might not fall into cybersecurity, but it's still important. Help to encourage moderate internet usage in your kids by limiting their access to it.
