Armed Forces Day

Armed Forces Day is a chance to show your support for the men and women who make up the Armed Forces community: from currently serving troops to Service families, veterans and cadets. There are many ways for people, communities and organisations across the country to show their support.

Armed Forces Day takes place on the last Saturday each June. Armed Forces Day celebrations begin on Monday 20 June when the Armed Forces Day flag is raised on buildings and famous landmarks around the country. Reserves Day also provides an opportunity for the country to recognise our Reserve Forces.

Showing support for the Armed Forces provides a much valued morale boost for the troops and their families. You can find out more about what they are doing at home and around the world by visiting the official sites of the Royal Navy, British Army and Royal Air Force.

Armed Forces Day recognises and celebrates many members past and present and the extended communities of the Armed Forces:

Veterans

A veteran is anyone who has served in the HM Armed Forces at any time (including National Servicemen, Regulars and Reserves). Armed Forces Day celebrates their continued role within the military community.

Reservists

Reservists give up their spare time to serve in the Reserve Forces, balancing their civilian life with a military career to ensure that should their country require them, they would be ready to serve.

An annual Reserves Day celebrates their contribution to the Armed Forces. Reserves Day is the Wednesday ahead of Armed Forces Day – 22 June.

Cadets

The Cadet Forces (Sea Cadets, Army Cadets, Air Cadets and the Combined Cadet Force) currently support over 130,000 young people in more than 3,000 locations across the UK. Cadets learn life and career building skills as well as gaining valuable vocational qualifications.

Families

Our Armed Forces couldn't do their job without the incredible support of their family and friends.

Charities

Although Armed Forces Day is not a charitable event, the Armed Forces have the support of several UK charities and many local events offer opportunities to support them. Here is the event taking place nearest to Burton:

25th – 26th June 2022
ARMED FORCES WEEKEND
10:00 am to 5:00 pm

The National Memorial Arboretum, part of The Royal British Legion, has supported Armed Forces Day since 2009. With nearly 12,000 participants this is the second biggest event after the main national event, makes a major contribution to the Armed Forces Day national programme.

The event will begin with a service of tribute in the amphitheatre to recognise the work of UK Armed Forces, and come together in thanking them for their hard work.

There will be a broad spectrum of activities for the whole family to enjoy including a WWII assault course, climbing wall, free drop air bag, and much more. Across the weekend two military bands will be performing to join in the celebrations, playing a host of live music for visitors. There will also be a 'Food and Craft Fair' with stalls from a range of local sellers and small businesses for all visitors to peruse.

Biscuit Tour for Ministers by Ross Playle

Local Member of Parliament, Kate Griffiths welcomed Jacob Rees-Mogg MP, to Uttoxeter on Thursday 12th May for a visit to Elkes Biscuits.

The two Members of Parliament toured the local factory and were able to see the manufacturing process themselves as well as take part in the opportunity to help make some biscuits themselves and meet factory workers and discuss their roles.

The factory was recently sold to Boparan Holdings, new investors who saved the site from a risk of closure and the loss of over 500 jobs.

Commenting, Kate Griffiths MP said: "Uttoxeter is proud to make many of the nation's favourite biscuits and I was delighted to be able to welcome Jacob to Uttoxeter on his visit to Elkes Biscuits to see for himself the operation of one of our largest local employers.

By The Barn

by Angela Sargent

Is it just me (or my age) but don't the years seem to fly by, never mind the seasons!

Suddenly we are half-way through the year, summer is here and farming is in high production mode!

Some will be finishing silage making, then changing to hay making if the weather forecast is ok and the grass has developed enough. With a husband who suffers drastically from hay fever, it is some years since we made hay, in fact its only a few years ago we sold our old baler (it made 'small bales' as opposed to the large ones which need a tractor to move them).

I've spent many an hour (after he had mowed, then retreated to the house to recover) turning, then rowing up the grass, over a few days. Hubby would bale it and then we would both load the hundreds of small bales onto trailers-eight 'courses' high (approx. 300 bales) and then unload and fill the Dutch barns, between eleven and fourteen courses high, throwing them up, to be caught and ricked.

Of course, there was a technique to stacking so that each bale and each course 'locked' so to prevent falls as the hay compressed and dried out further. Although sometimes parts did collapse. Such was the case when one helper stacked them in a column 'to make them un-rick easier'!

Life became interesting when you were at the top, sweating under the roof and had to figure how to climb down! No health and safety then!

Our hay meadows are not as good as they once were but provide good year-round grazing, even if they get a tad heavy in winter, especially the one known as 'duzzybed'!

We will be worming, shearing and spraying lambs to avoid fly strike this month, so a busy time with the sheep. And continuing to market any fat lambs that are ready, whilst complying with the withdrawal periods needed after using the aforesaid products- this means animals treated cannot be sold for a set period to ensure all health regulations are met.

Soft fruit farmers will be picking the myriad berries produced and sending them to the retailers.

Arable growers will be using fuel to tend their field crops.

Potato growers will be irrigating theirs to enable the spud to fill out and the Dairy men will be continuing to milk- all high energy users and with the spiralling costs of our energy, no wonder food prices will grow too.

In past years there were government strategies to keep food prices low (the farmers being compensated if costs got too great), but, as the pursuit of free trade intensified, market forces affect prices over here and if not right now, certainly next years costs will rise.

Will farmers be able to continue to produce as they have?

The dawn chorus reaches optimum this month and numerous butterflies and moths are to be seen along the ditches and hedgerows, in woods and flitting along the upland walls. Take an early morning walk, just as the sun rises and see and hear for yourself.

Beaches Near Burton

As we near the summer, many of us are feeling the pinch and might be opting for a good ol' Blighty staycation. This doesn't mean that you have to forgo the sand between your toes! Here are a list of the nearest seaside locations that you reach this summer and dip your feet in the water!

Blackpool

Distance: 112mi (2hr 15mins)
Blackpool is a seaside resort on the Irish Sea coast of England. It's known for Blackpool Pleasure Beach, an old-school amusement park with vintage wooden roller coasters. Built in 1894, the landmark Blackpool Tower houses a circus, a glass viewing platform and the Tower Ballroom, where dancers twirl to the music of a Wurlitzer organ. Blackpool Illuminations is an annual light show along the Promenade.

Formby

Distance: 95 mi (2hr)
The National Trust's Formby, Merseyside, is a glorious beach with dramatic sand dunes, surrounded by sweeping coastal pinewoods. You're welcome to bring a picnic but BBQs and fires are not permitted at Formby's nature haven. Please bring a bag for your litter.

Cleethorpes

Distance: 110 mi (2hr)
With breath-taking scenery, fabulous beaches with exciting watersports available, mouth-watering food, top attractions and fascinating history. Cleethorpes has something for everyone, where else do you have award-winning beaches, Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty and first-class visitor attractions.

Skegness

Distance: 110 mi (2hr 30mins)
Walk along the front at Skegness and it's a wonderland of family friendly attractions – go-karting, ten-pin bowling, funfairs and crazy golf are just some of the fun things that you can do!

Scarborough

Distance: 130 mi (2hr 30mins)
As Britain's original seaside resort, holidays to Scarborough offer something for everyone with two beaches, exciting attractions and a rich history.

Southport

Distance: 100 mi (2hr 15mins)
Boasting a beautiful and expansive coastline, Southport is surrounded by natural beauty, making it a great place to escape. Starting your journey along the coast, at Crosby beach you can experience the artist Anthony Gormley's 'Another Place' sculpture installation of 100 iron men looking out to sea.

Insect Week

The UK will be buzzing and crawling with hundreds of events during National Insect Week 2022. From 20th to 26th June there will be opportunities to join minibeast safaris, field trips and moth nights from Cornwall to the Scottish Highlands, from County Fermanagh to Suffolk. Each event will celebrate insects and the entomologists who study them, bringing people closer to the little things that run the world.

Insect Week encourages people of all ages to learn more about insects. Every two years, the Royal Entomological Society organises the week, supported by a large number of partner organisations with interests in the science, natural history and conservation of insects.

Did you know that most cultures, except those originating from North West Europe, eat insects such as deep fried cockroaches and midge paté?

This year The Great Bug Hunt is here! It's been a long winter, but the little creatures will shortly be making their way out of hibernation into the warm spring sunshine – and then what will you find?

Encourage your children to get outside to learn more about living things and their habitats and to use the outdoor classroom – with this fabulous competition. Simply identify a local habitat, explore and discover the minibeasts (bugs) that live there, draw them and record their findings – it's that easy! For more information visit: www.insectweek.co.uk

Stretton Bowls Family Fun Day

Stretton Bowls Club is delighted to announce it's Centenary this year and would like to welcome everyone to join in their celebrations on Sunday 10th July.

From 11am onwards we will be organising a huge variety of activities, including novelty games on the bowling greens, such as bowls golf, bottle bowls, skittles, face painting, tombola, bowling for the "Pig" (prize money will be given), demonstrations by the Stretton Flying Club who are the premier pigeon flying club in the area. In addition there will be numerous stalls, offering goodies such as home-made cakes, jewellery, the Olde Sweet Shoppe, as well as many more.

The bowls club was formed in 1922 after a group of local residents contacted Stretton Parish Council about the availability of a plot of suitable land. 'Stretton in the Fields Bowls Club' began life at Beech Lane on land that was formerly a cricket ground.

In 1979 the Council granted us land at our current location on Bitham Lane after the old clubhouse had been burnt down by vandals.

Feel free to dress in period costume (prize for the best!).

Live music during the day by a local group.

Refreshments will be provided by staff and students from the The Fountains High School throughout the day. All proceeds on the day from the cafe will be going to selected charities.

The club has a well stocked bar and will also be open until late serving guest ales.

Admission is free, so please come along to Bitham Lane. Free car parking is available (limited spaces).

UEFA Women's Euros by Rhian Warriner

UEFA Women's EURO 2022 is coming to England this summer and promises to be the biggest women's sporting event in Europe.

The Netherlands won the previous UEFA Women's Championship back in 2017, triumphing on home soil for the first time but a lot has changed since then. Can the Dutch defend their crown? Or will we see a different winner this year?

Current favourites are Spain with England a close second and have a fantastic chance of bringing the trophy home. Let's hope that it won't come to penalties!

The team will be led by 25 year old Leah Williamson who has said "This is an incredibly proud moment for me and my family and I'm honoured to be asked to lead us at the EUROs". "Although I will be wearing the armband, I know we have a squad full of leaders who share my pride and passion in playing for our country. Whether I'm captain or not, I will never take anything for granted and will always do my best for England every time I pull on the shirt."

The tournament is scheduled to take place from 6-31 July and will see the pinnacle of women's football compete for Europe's biggest prize. 16 teams will be in action at 10 different venues in 9 cities across the country with Old Trafford hosting the opening match and Wembley Stadium staging the final, marking a unique moment of hosting back-to-back men's and women's EURO final events.

Tickets are available for the tournament starting from just £5 with matches taking place across England in Brighton & Hove, Brentford, Manchester, Milton Keynes, Rotherham, Sheffield, Southampton, and Wigan & Leigh.

England's tournament kicks off on the 6th of July against Austria at Old Trafford at 8pm. Let's dust off those flags from last year and support our Women's team to victory.

Nadine Kessler, UEFA's chief of women's football, said: "This UEFA Women's EURO 2022 will be groundbreaking from start to finish.

"The biggest women's sports event in Europe will provide an unprecedented opportunity for us to inspire the next generation of players and fans. "Our host cities, clubs and local authorities are up to the challenge of providing more opportunities for women and girls than ever before and knowing The FA's long-term commitment to the women's game, we have no doubt that together we will set a new European benchmark."

There will be a family and local community-focused UEFA and EURO's Roadshow that will travel 800 miles, making 10 stops across 43 days, finishing on 2 July in London – just a few days before the tournament's opening match at Old Trafford.

As the Women's EUROs draws closer, organisers are aiming to inspire more communities, particularly young people and families, to encourage them to get involved in the biggest European women's sport event in history.

Group Draws are:

Group A: England (hosts), Austria, Norway, Northern Ireland

Group B: Germany, Denmark, Spain, Finland

Group C: Netherlands (holders), Sweden, Portugal*, Switzerland

*Portugal replace Russia

Group D: France, Italy, Belgium, Iceland

Vegetables in Summer By Tim Brooks

Well, summer is finally here and it is always an exciting time on the allotments in June, when the strawberries are ripening and everything has probably been planted until the autumn. Its a case of watering well and weeding now. Feeding wise I use a seaweed fertiliser, either in powdered form or a liquid feed which you dilute. I like also using a natural feed, like putting comfrey leaves in a water butt, allowing them to decompose in the water. It makes a very good high potash feed, but dilute it with more water before using.

I'm growing carrots again this year, these like a fine soil and sowed thinly. Keep well watered until they germinate. Thin out if too close together and planting next to onions will help deter carrot fly. They also don't like freshly manured soil, it affects their tapered roots.

Cabbages and other brassicas can be tricky to grow, especially if your soil has club root. A disease which affects the roots, forming a tough tuber type root. There are resistant varieties of cabbages and cauliflowers available, though I also try adding garden lime to the soil which helps a bit.

Onions are another invaluable vegetable we grow, started from onion sets in April, the area raked over finely before planting out around 8 inches apart, fed with granular dried seaweed or similar fertiliser. Keep the area weed free and watered until they get established. Onions leaves eventually turn yellow and bend over when ready. Gently fork them out of the soil around August and allow bulbs to dry out on raised netting or hang up to totally dry, before storing in a cool dry place.

Indoor tomatoes will need weekly feeding with a potash liquid feed and tying up as they grow up their supports. As a rule, best to pinch out the growing tip when around six trusses of the yellow flowers are formed. This gives more strength to the vines to develop bigger fruits.

With all these vegetables that will be available through out the summer, why not try this vegan coleslaw recipe to enjoy with your summer salads and on sandwiches!

Vegan Coleslaw

Ingredients:

5 cups cabbage, both green & red –shredded finely
3 cups grated carrots
2 tbsps sugar or maple syrup
2 tbsps apple cider vinegar
1/8 tsp celery seeds
1/4 tsp salt
1/2 cup vegan mayo
e.g. “Veganaise” or other type

Method:

- Cut up and shred finely some red & green cabbage to a bowl add grated carrots and mix together.
- Add the sugar or maple syrup along with the apple cider vinegar, again mixing well to cover all the cabbage and carrots.
- Add the celery seeds and salt, mixing it all together.
- Then finally add the half cup of Vegan mayo and mix well, adding a bit more if you prefer.

Chicken Wing Day

With the summer approaching, what better treat to enjoy on the BBQ than homemade chicken wings? In honour of International Chicken Wing Day on 1st July here are a few marinades for you to try.

Aisan Sesame Marinade

½ cup soy sauce
1 tablespoon minced ginger
1 tablespoon minced garlic
1 tablespoon Asian chili paste
½ cup honey
1 ½ teaspoons hoisin sauce
2 tablespoons toasted sesame

seeds
1 spring onion, trimmed and chopped

Mix the wet ingredients with the ginger and garlic and marinade chicken wings in this sauce overnight. When ready, cook under a grill or on a BBQ until cooked through. Then sprinkle with sesame seeds and spring onion to garnish.

Greek Style Marinade

Juice and zest of 1 large lemon, plus more lemon wedges for serving 3 cloves of garlic, peeled
1 small shallot peeled and roughly chopped
3 tablespoons olive oil
3 tablespoons red wine

vinegar
1 teaspoon paprika
1½ tablespoons dried oregano
Salt and pepper to taste

Mix ingredients and marinade wings overnight. When ready, cook under a grill or on a BBQ until cooked through. Sprinkle with fresh herbs of your choice and serve with lemon wedges. These wings are great to dip into Tzatziki or Hoummous.

Summertime Reads

With beach holidays afoot, here are some good reads to pack into your case and enjoy on the sun lounger whilst poolside.

Single Bald Female
by Laura Price

At the point of turning thirty, Jessica Jackson has everything in place: a job, a great boyfriend and a snug London flat they share with their cat. Then a sudden diagnosis of breast cancer causes Jess's world to implode. As friends move forward with baby scans and weddings, Jess feels alone and left behind. And then she meets Annabel, a mysterious young woman with incurable cancer. Annabel may not have long left to live, but she wants to show Jess how it's possible to make every day meaningful.

A smart, funny, uplifting story about friendship, love and the unexpected twists life can take. Laura Price writes about difficult subjects with the lightest of touches, and managed to make me laugh and sob in the same sentence. This is a beautiful novel you'll want to talk to all your friends about.

In the Heart of Hidden Things
by Kit Whitfield

Everyone knows that if you fall afoul of the People, you must travel the miles to Gyrford, where uncounted generations of fairy-smiths have protected the county with cold iron, good counsel and unvarnished opinions about your common sense.

But shielding the weak from the strong can make enemies. Ephraim Brady has money and power, and the bitter will to hurt those who cross him. And if he can't touch elder farrier Jedediah Smith, he can harm those the Smiths care about.

As powerfully intelligent as it is entertaining, Whitfield's marvellously assured fantasy debut leads the reader into a mysterious world of fairy-smiths, weaving a gripping tale of trespass, revenge, and responsibility - Waterstones Review

One Good Thing
by Alexandra Potter

Liv Brooks is in shock at the turn her life has taken. She has just got divorced and her life feels unsteady when she swaps London life for the Yorkshire Dales, trying to start life afresh. But new starts can be tricky, and lonesome Liv adopts Harry, an ageing dog from a local shelter. Walking round the village with Harry, Liv encounters others who need a new start too, from a lonely old man called Valentine to fearful child Stanley and angry teen Maya. This funny, honest and heart-tugging tale is about having the courage to turn life around and find new meanings.

One Good Thing is the new heartwarming, hilarious alternative love story, from the internationally bestselling, Alexandra Potter

How to Save a Life
by Eva Carter
Book cover for How to Save a Life

It's nearly midnight on the eve of the millennium when eighteen-year-old Joel's heart stops. A school friend, performs CPR ultimately saving Joel's life, while her best friend Tim freezes, unable to help. That moment of life and death changes the course of all three lives over the next two decades: each time Kerry, Joel and Tim believe they've found love, discovered their vocation, or simply moved on, their lives collide again.

Holiday & Garden Checks by Derby Cats Protection

When Frankie went missing, his human family search everywhere but couldn't find him. One morning, over four weeks later, Frankie arrived home on his own. He'd lost half his body weight. It's likely poor Frankie had been accidentally shut in someone's shed or garage all this time.

Luckily, he'd had access to water and the odd mouse during this time or he wouldn't have survived and starved to death. As we're now at a time when we are doing lots of gardening, DIY etc, please check your sheds, greenhouses and garages before you lock up - particularly if you are going away for a weekend break or a longer holiday. You could save a life and a much loved pet.

THE CAT FEEDER

The service I offer is to come feed and fuss your cat/s whilst you are away on holiday, at work or even a hospital stay, whatever your needs I can work around them. Go away knowing that your cat/s are happy in the comfort of their own home.

Are you happy with the care you receive?

- Do you have to pay higher rates for weekends?
- Do you have to pay higher rates for bank holiday?
- Do you regularly get different carers turning up?
- Do they come at different times than expected?

Why? Don't you deserve to be treated fairer?

At Visiting Angels East Staffordshire all this is included in the one price and we provide consistent and continuous care guaranteed.

We are a carer centric business, which means the retention rate of our carers is significantly higher than most home care companies.

Whatever support you need, we can offer you a tailored support package to allow you to continue to be independent and live your life the way you want, everyday.

Entertain Your Little Monkeys

Are you looking for a fun summer activity with the kids? Don't want to spend a tonne? Try a Monkey Forest in Staffordshire

Looking for something to do with the kids? In Staffordshire there are 140 free-roaming monkeys that living in total freedom, and you can visit them with your little ones without breaking the bank...

Trentham Monkey Forest is a sanctuary in Stoke where Barbary macaques can simply be themselves in a 60-acre Forest and is the PERFECT place for a family to make memories in.

The woodland is the monkey's tranquil home in Trentham. The primates can go wherever they like as they aren't restricted by any bars or cages, allowing visitors to observe nature in a way that can't be replicated anywhere else in the UK.

The park is open for visitors to explore the forest and be amazed from February until November.

Guests can see the monkeys' fascinating natural behaviours right in front of their very eyes, making it one of the most unique but affordable days out in the UK.

From young to old, all different age groups can be seen at the magical forest. They can be swinging from trees to babysitting in a flash. The park is great fun for little ones and will also inspire them to learn about animals and conservation.

The monkeys that live in Trentham are Barbary macaques, unfortunately these monkeys today are highly endangered. The population has decreased by more than 50% in the last 30 years and there are now fewer than 8,000 wild Barbary macaques left.

Monkey Forest is strongly committed to the protection of the species by:

- Raising public awareness for the need to protect this endangered species by giving people the opportunity to observe the Barbary macaques in a setting very similar to their natural habitat
- Developing educational information in order to help engage our visitors
- Working with organisations to help protect wild Barbary macaques, such as Barbary macaque Awareness and Conservation (BMAC) *Primate Society of Great Britain (PSGB) *
